WHAT SHOULD A SCOUT TAKE TO CAMP?

The items should be packed in a footlocker, duffel bag or backpack

Medical Form:

- The Troop is to submit medical forms one week before arriving at camp. Scouts should also keep a copy of their medical form for their records.

Recommended Personal Gear:

- Scout Uniform(s)Shirt, Shorts, Socks, Neckerchief, Belt, OA sash, hat
- Extra Shirts
- Extra Pants
- Extra Shorts
- Extra Socks
- Extra Underwear
- Jacket
- Rain Gear
- Sleep Wear
- Sneakers or Hiking Boots
- Swim Trunks
- Towels
- Sleeping Bag & Pillow
- Personal First Aid Kit
- Flashlight & Batteries
- Wallet & Money
- Notebook, Pen & Pencil
- Scout Handbook & Merit Badge Books
- Non-Aerosol Bug Lotion
- Sun Screen Lotion
- Toilet Items: Soap, Comb, Toothpaste, Toothbrush, Shampoo, Deodorant
- Other items needed for your merit badge work

Optional Personal Gear:

- Mountain Bicycle & Helmet
- Watch
- Compass
- Camera & Film
- Sunglasses
- Songbook or Nature Books
- Sports Equipment
- Bible or Prayer Book
- Fishing Gear & Bait
- Stationery & Stamps
- Dirty Clothes Bag
- Canteen
- Alarm Clock
- Pocket Knife
- Musical Instrument
- Binocular
- Cards, Chess, Checkers
- Personal Bows may be brought to camp. Bows are to be checked in at the Res. Office

Items to Leave at Home:

Pets, cell phones, sheath knives, fireworks, firearms, ammunition, radios, tape players, CD players, walkmans, electronic games, squirt guns, dice, unscout-like literature, alcoholic beverages, and non-prescription controlled substances are not permitted in camp. Valuable items should be left at home.

Remember: Label Your Gear!