Bahamas Adventure

Sea Base is anxious for your arrival and participation in the Bahamas Adventure Program for the upcoming season. To aid you in preparation for the trip, I would like to go over some physical aspects of the week that you will spend with us this season.

The Area

The area that your program will take place in is Marsh Harbour, Great Abaco Island, Bahamas. The Abacos are a cluster of islands located due east of West Palm Beach, Florida, and are known enthusiastically as "The Family Islands." There are a large number of opportunities for snorkeling, sailing, and fishing. The smaller islands surrounding Great Abaco are called "cays" (pronounced "keys") and are known as one of the premier sailing destinations of the world. Boaters often spend months here because of the beautiful turquoise waters around the Marsh Harbour area. The history of these islands is unique. The Spaniards were the first Europeans to explore the Abacos, but the Lucayan Indians were native to the area and disappeared soon after the arrival of the Europeans.

In the 1500's the British colonized the larger Bahamas Islands. During the 1700's piracy prevailed in the area because it was well suited to that trade, with its numerous coves, cays, and other small islands. The Abacos became inhabited during the 1800's as settlers who were loyal to the British Crown arrived from the United States. In 1977, 230 of Man-O-War Cay's population of 235 could trace their ancestry to a single couple who settled the island one hundred fifty years earlier. Wrecking, a term used to describe the salvaging of ships that wrecked on the numerous reefs surrounding the Bahamas, became a major industry in the 1800's. The area abounds with stories of pirates, colonists, and wreckers, which gives this area its natural flair for high adventure.

Your Vessel

The boat assignments will be made just prior to your arrival.

Schedule

Day 1:

After your crew clears Customs at the Marsh Harbour airport, a cab will be waiting to take you to Conch Inn Marina. A Sea Base staff member will greet you there and will pay for the cab. Once you arrive at the marina you will load gear onto the boat and have a swim review. There will be a chart talk with your captain to discuss safety, local customs, and the float plan. You will sleep every night on your vessel.

Day 2-6:

Set sail for high adventure! You will snorkel in pristine reefs such as Fowl Cay Preserve and the Northeast End of Great Guana Cay. You will troll with fishing lures for snapper, grouper, barracuda, and shark. Fresh fish is a nice addition to the meals that your crew will cook in the ship's galley. The captain will educate the crew in seamanship and leave the basic ship work to you. Teamwork within the crew will allow you to sail to different Bahamian Cays and settlements such as Hope Town and Man-O-War Cay. Exploring these sites and learning new cultures will really be exciting. Keep in mind the weather and the crew's ability plays a large part in the flexibility of the schedule. This is not a pleasure cruise, but rather a working, sailing journey that involves teamwork, education, and safety for scouts and leaders alike. In addition to sailing duties, all scouts and leaders will clean the vessel including the head (toilet) and stand anchor watches at night.

Day 7:

You will return to the Conch Inn Marina in the early morning to clean your boat and pack. This is your departure day. After noon, your crew will grab a cab to the airport (Sea Base pays for the cab), and remember you will be responsible for the $15.00 per person Departure Tax.

Each crew participant will need to tie several different types of knots while sailing. These knots include a clove hitch, bowline, and a reef knot. To learn and practice these knots, refer to the Boy Scout Handbook, and Chapman's Guide to Piloting.

Extra Expenses (Money)

Although your fees cover all program expenses, you will want to bring some extra spending money. You may want to spend money for sodas and coin operated telephones. Your itinerary may or may not include a side trip to some local attractions or souvenir shops, or even dining out one evening. Please consider all these factors when planning your budget. For example, a meal in Hope Town may be 60% higher in cost than in the Midwest. Note: Participants in the Bahamas Adventure must allocate an additional $15.00 for Departure Tax.

IMPORTANT! CLEARING CUSTOMS

Every participant must have a valid current US Passport. This is a change from previous years. Without proper identification you will not be allowed to enter the Bahamas and you will be sent home.
